

Police Officer of the Month

November 2010

Ofc. James Lentscher

Chief William McMahon has selected Ofc. James Lentscher as Police Officer of the Month for November 2010. During that month, Lentscher worked extensively with the Kings Contrivance community on a lengthy investigation into theft from vehicles incidents. His work closed the case with multiple arrests and restored quality of life for residents. He was described by his supervisor as confident, dependable and full of initiative. Congratulations!
